Personal Profile

I have excellent interpersonal skills that enable me to build a strong rapport with other colleagues and individuals. I take pride in knowing each individual's interests and tailoring my sessions to suit their need. I have an ability to listen and empathise with others. I believe that this is especially important when working with parents. I also hold a strong value for multidisciplinary team working. I will bring my knowledge, passion and enthusiasm to my work and deliver evidenced based, effective Speech and Language therapy.

Work experience:

ATtherapy - February 2018-Present

Speech and Language Therapist

I hold an individual case load supporting children and adults with a range of conditions including complex needs and acquired neurological conditions. I support children with complex conditions including those requiring high tech AAC, from text-based systems through to early eye gaze. The majority of my caseload are medical legal clients, so I understand the need for sensitivity and a collaborative and multi-disciplinary team approach.

Churchill Special Free School - September 2016- February 2018

Speech and Language Therapist

Here I gained experience working with children aged 8-18 with a diagnosis of Autistic Spectrum Disorders and Speech, Language and Communication needs. I undertook a range of assessments in order to make a differential diagnosis and evaluate progress. I also planned and delivered individual and group intervention programmes using evidence-based practice and provided support to staff through training and universal support. I completed my NQP competencies and developed skills in individuals with more complex conditions.

Haverhill Community Care - June 2017-Present

Bank Senior Community Home Carer

Here I gained experience working with adults with a range of conditions such as strokes, MND, Parkinson's Disease and Dementia.

Time Specialist Support - April 2016-July 2016

Support Worker for children and adolescents with Autism Spectrum Disorder and complex needs

Camp Thorpe - June-August 2014:

Camp Counsellor for children and adults with special needs

Additional Skills

Through all the above roles, I have experience of providing communication assessments and support for individuals with a range of needs. I strive to build strong working relationships and am skilled at working and liaising with other professionals and families. I am also passionate about developing my own knowledge base and seek out opportunities for Continual Professional Development.

I am confident in a wide variety of formal assessments to determine a clear baseline for children's communication needs. I am also particularly skilled in informal assessment for children with complex needs.
